

NO WAITING!

A goal of the Dane County Department of Human Services is to help as many people into recovery as possible. To meet this goal, Dane County-funded agencies must be ready to begin treatment for substance use disorders at the moment someone is ready to enter treatment. By reducing the number of people waiting to be admitted to treatment, we get one step closer to this goal. The chart below shows the progress we made to reach that goal.

